

COVID-19 INFORMATION

Supervisor McLaughlin informed everyone that County Executive Wendell declared a State of Emergency for the County. As of tomorrow, this building will be closed to the public. People can either mail payments or use the drop box. Judge Gerace reported that all court dates are being rescheduled for 45 days. There is still centralized arraignment at the County and they have two designated courts in the County. Supervisor McLaughlin is working on getting COVID-19 approved masks and hand sanitizer for the police officers. Code Enforcer Rowe will still be working and doing inspections as needed.

MOTION by Councilwoman Whitmore, seconded by Councilman Tyler to adjourn at 6:48 PM.

Carried.
