PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR

Gary Prado, 3527 Lake Street, Jamestown, stated that this is his second year as a homeowner on the lake. This year is much better than last year. He thanked the Board for their hard work and asked them to continue in the coming years.

TOWN OFFICER’S REPORTS

Councilman Heitzenrater attended a meeting in the Village of Falconer regarding the redevelopment of Main Street. It will be a mixed use to include commercial, work force residential housing and green space. He also informed the Board that the resident on Willard Street went to the Zoning Board and was granted a variance for his chickens.

Councilwoman Whitmore received a phone call from a resident on Willard Street Ext. about a house that has a bunch of garbage in the front yard. She spoke with Dave Rowe and he was already dealing with the issue

Deputy Clerk Calkins reported that we have the option to change our website to Weebly (still with STW) for an additional $144 per year. This would make the website mobile friendly. She also reminded everyone that the sexual harassment training must be done by October 1st.

OLD BUSINESS

Water Tower – Highway Superintendent Pickett handed out a spreadsheet detailing the costs of each option for rehabilitation or replacement. Superintendent McLaughlin passed around pictures of the inside and outside of the water tower that was done during the inspection.
